JAWLAI STORY

Dear Kyrie Irving,

I'm excited to share Jawalai Ahmazai's story—a perfect example of the difference your support makes. An 8-year-old, Jawalai lived in a remote village with little access to education and dreamt of becoming a teacher. When Kegdai Mobile School arrived, bringing a well-equipped classroom to his community, his world changed.

With new resources and enthusiastic teachers, Jawalai thrived, excelled in math, and even began helping his siblings with their studies. Today, his dream of becoming a teacher is within reach, and she's a top student in her class.

Your support has transformed Jawalai's life and many others. Thank you for making such a significant impact.

Warm regards,
Maryam Amarkhil
